G-WAC Notes

Project Jay Preservation Group

May 2023

Almost halfway through the year already, time flies when you are old. Bought myself a mobility scooter, must remember to keep it charged, it ran out of puff at the Ripley Castle show last weekend.

With the show season now in full swing, Patrick has some good shows for us to attend, many of them run by the Great British Motor Shows team, headed up by Steve Bishop, ably assisted by Mark Woodward, who used to run the local shows.

Frank says ... I've got myself a new-to-me Land Rover

Specifically, a Freelander 2 Sport SD4 LE – and what a mouthful that is.

Short story: I failed to get round to sorting out the advisories on last year's MoT for my Range Rover L322. I was in serious danger of receiving a very large bill and being without a motor for a longer length of time than I could risk.

Gaydon Land Rover Show at the British Motor Museum, 7th – 8th May

The show usually takes place on a Saturday and Sunday, but with the Saturday being taken up by the coronation of our new king, the dates moved on by one day.

The weekend is dedicated to the iconic Land Rover margue featuring hundreds of Land Rovers from 1948 to the present day, and was also the venue for the PJPG's 5th Annual General Meeting.

With the traffic being light traveling down with G526WAC on Saturday, Daphne and I had a very pleasant journey south to Warwick, to reach our B&B in good time. Stephen, the PJPG webmaster (my son) travelled down in my V8, G478WAC, (I let him take the heavy fuel bill) to be present at the AGM.

The stand was organised by Ian, the PJPG Secretary, where he assembled the six Jays on the grass in front of the museum.

Footfall on the stand was quite brisk on Sunday, most LR owners expect to see these early D1s used in competition, and to see some shinny ones is quite a unique experience; Copies of G-WAC Notes, together with membership application forms, and the April Jay News, were on show to inform the visitors about our club. Enrolling new members at a Land Rover show is not often very productive because most of the visitors will be members of one of the many LR clubs.

The AGM took place in our gazebo after the close of the show on Sunday. Nominations for most of the committee roles were filled, but the committee was left without a Press & Publicity Officer, which includes the job of editing the monthly Jay News. The Memsec role was left vacant and although the Treasurer's job is still in need of someone to take over, the incumbent agreed to keep an eye on the cash. The following few days after the AGM, the P&P and the Memsec job were covered so that the club can continue to function.

Monday was cold and wet, and not very busy on the stand, so by 4.00 pm we were ready to dismantle the gazebo and banner and prepare for our journey home.
