

G-WAC Notes

A news Sheet for those who are interested in the factory registered G-WACs

June 2026

G513DHP is now taxed with her new battery and is running very sweetly, she is Daphne's favourite because of the five doors, and the colour is Foxfire red. The registration number also shows some of her initials!!

The tractor Fest at Ripley Castle is always a good show and the event on 6th and 7th was no exception.

Current known owners of G-WAC registered Land Rovers. June 2026.
For the launch of the Discovery there were 86 cars registered on 01.10.89 from G451WAC to G537WAC.
with the exception of G500WAC. Only 22 are known to survive.

Tractor Fest, Newby Hall. Ripon. June 2026

This was my first time at this event, and although it was predominantly tractors of all shapes and sizes, there was a good selection of classic cars and Land Rovers from Series to Range Rover. The show has been growing exponentially in size and popularity over the last couple of years.

The PJPG stand, with Patrick ready to welcome visitors onto the stand.

Dan Clark was there with his White BKV reg Jay, and his Series 2 88" and Series 3 109" 1 Ton.

Tractor Fest is the UK's largest vintage tractor & engine show. It is organised by the Yorkshire Vintage Association, in conjunction with Newby Hall & Gardens.

Each year the show attracts over 2,000 exhibits as well as in excess of 12,000 visitors. This unique partnership allows them to put on an event which occupies approximately 120 acres and features over 1,000 tractors on display. The first event at Newby Hall was held in 2007 when they had some 360 exhibits entered. It has grown year on year since then and now attracts exhibits from all corners of the United Kingdom and even further afield.

Patrick was there to welcome visitors to the stand.
